Re: Rembrandt Technologies LP v. ABC, Inc.; C.A. No. 06-730-GMS
Rembrandt Technologies LP v. CBS Corporation; C.A. No. 06-727-GMS
Rembrandt Technologies LP v. NBC Universal, Inc.; C.A. No. 06-729-GMS
Rembrandt Technologies LP v. Fox Entertainment Group, Inc. and Fox Broadcasting Company; C.A. No. 06-731-GMS

Dear Judge Sleet:

We write in response to Mr. Blumenfeld's letter to Your Honor regarding the above cases, dated March 21, 2007 (D.I. 16). We represent the plaintiff in the above cases ("the broadcaster cases") and oppose defendants' request to coordinate the Markman proceedings, discovery and trial concerning U.S. Patent No. 5,243,627 ("the '627 patent") in these cases with the Rembrandt v. Cablevision case, C.A. No. 06-635-GMS ("Cablevision").

We do not believe that coordination of the '627 patent proceedings would serve the interests of the Court or the parties. First, the '627 patent is the only patent that has been asserted against the defendants in the broadcaster cases, whereas there are four other patents asserted in the Cablevision case. Second, those four other patents asserted against Cablevision relate to an entirely different technology than the '627 patent (cable modems rather than digital television). Third, even with respect to the '627 patent, the claims relating to the issue of the broadcasters' infringement are different than those claims in the '627 patent asserted against Cablevision.

For the above reasons, we do not believe there should be consolidation of the broadcaster cases with Cablevision, or a consolidation of the scheduling conferences in the Cablevision and broadcaster cases. We also respectfully advise the Court that we cannot be present on March 26, the date of the Cablevision scheduling conference.

Respectfully,

/s/ Lauren E. Maguire
